Honorable Edward P. Boland, Chairman
Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for your letter of April 7, 1978, conveying Congressman John Ashbrook's and two Committee staff members' appreciation for the briefings provided by [redacted]

[redacted] I am convinced that contact between Committee Members and staff with our field officers is genuinely beneficial to all parties and your thoughtful letter underscores that belief.

Again, many thanks for your letter of
April 7.

Yours sincerely,

April 7, 1978

Honorable Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

Three Members of this Committee accompanied by two staff members had recent occasion to visit intelligence facilities [redacted] On one portion of that trip Congressman John Ashbrook and two staff members spent a morning with [redacted]

The staff and Congressman Ashbrook have asked me to express the Committee's appreciation to [redacted] for the highly professional briefing he presented and his forthright answers to their questions. If [redacted] is typical of your DDO personnel in the field then you have every reason to be justly proud of your staff.

With every good wish, I am,

Sincerely yours,

EDWARD P. BOLAND
Chairman
